A Bousa program includes numbers representing both the classical and the popular schools of composition, and as much attention is given to the play of the lightest selection as is bestowed upon the works of Wagner and Liszt. This is one of the secrets of the success of the organization under this magnetic leader. Every number of every program is played for its full effect, and the full effect of the band arrangement by Bousa of almost any kind of a composition means something striking, something bound to catch the ear of the auditor whose knowledge of music is limited to consciousness that melody pleases him and something that compels the attention of the educated musician. It is spectacular music that the band makes, and that is one reason why crowds go to the concerts, but the spectacular effect is not produced in a way to offend the genuine musician. It is the custom to condemn as devoid of true merit anything that is intended by all classes of people, but Bousa is artistic and popular at the same time, and his appearances here will be hailed with true delight.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE.

News of Their Doings in Their Respective Churches.

This column has been very kindly donated by Mr. Thomas A. Davis for the benefit of the various Young People's Societies of our city—C. E., Epworth Leagues and Young People's Alliance, and these Societies are very respectfully invited to send in their matter the Thursday previous to the day of publication.

The young people who are members of the various Churches in our city, and who have not yet become active members of the Young People's Society of their Church should do so at once.

Christian Endeavor Day will be observed in a union meeting by the various C. E. Societies at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday evening, January 31st. A very elaborate program will be gone through with, and the meeting promises to be a grand one.

The Disciples Society of Christian Endeavor presented the Young Men's Christian Association with the Golden Rule, the Society paper, for the year 1897. This Society is in an excellent condition financially, having paid off all pledges up to date, and has provided for one of $15 that is due in April. There were five new members taken in at the meeting on Sunday, January 18th, three active and two associates. This shows that the Society is alive and doing a splendid work.

The Union Social given by the Westminster Society of Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian Church last night was a grand success, and the members of that Society deserve great praise for the manner they entertained the visitors.

The music was one of the features of the evening, and it is to be hoped that these union meetings will be more frequent, as they are the means of drawing the young people closer to each other and become better acquainted with the workings of each Society.

The following are the Young People's Societies of our city and the time and place they meet:

Westminster Society, C. E.—First Presbyterian Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Disciples Society, C. E.—Chapel of Christian Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Central Presbyterian C. E.—Central Presbyterian Church, 8 p. m., Wednesdays.

Mitchell's Chapel C. E.—Tuesday, 7 p. m.

Epworth League—M. E. Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Epworth League—M. E. Church, South, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Epworth League—Sedden Chapel, Sixth Ward, 6 p. m., every Thursday and every other Sunday.

Young People's Alliance—Baptist Church, 6 p. m., Sundays.

Every young person is cordially invited to attend some one of these meetings, and a cordial welcome awaits them.

"Our Failures and Successes" is the title for consideration by the Christian Endeavor Societies for tomorrow evening. It is suggested that this topic be used for a Question box meeting, which no doubt meets with the approval of the large number of the Societies. The Bible reference is Luke 5:11. Out of some of our failures come some of our most perfect successes. Take the life of Jesus for example. From a worldly standpoint His life was a miserable failure. But where we find a more successful life than His? The worldly people point to His poverty, to His associating Himself with the poor, to His being despised, and that these facts alone were enough to make His mission on this earth a failure. But we, as young people, know that some of our most brilliant statesmen came from humble homes. The reason that we so often fail in our undertakings is because of lack of faith. Let us remember the pledges, "Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength," etc., and all the rest will be easy and there never will be such a thing as fail.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Central Presbyterian Church has changed the time of meeting from Sunday evening to Wednesday evening immediately after the mid-week prayer meeting.

There are in this city four Christian Endeavor Societies, three Epworth Leagues and one Young People's Alliance. These represent the bones and sinews of the various Churches of our city.

The Central Presbyterian Society of Christian Endeavor elected officers for the ensuing six months Wednesday night as follows:

President—James W. Piper.

Vice-President—James B. Wood.

Secretary—Miss Ella Wallace.

Treasurer—Miss Lizzie Cox.

The Society is in an excellent condition. Services are held every Sunday afternoon at the County Infirmary, from which there have been good results.

The trip to Vancouver of the members of the Friendship Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 43, I. O. O. F., of this city has been postponed on account of the illness of several members of the Vancouver Lodge.

Mrs. Julia Webster is convalescing. Mr. Eli Farmer is confined to his home with a severe cold. Rev. Bart is conducting a protracted meeting at Rectoryville. Miss Nannie Bradley is a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. B. Jenkins. Elder White of Tollesboro passed through our village Tuesday. Mrs. Lou Boyd left recently for an extended visit to relatives in Lewis. Elder H. A. Brown of Cottageville was calling on friends here last week. Mr. and Mrs. James Sarlin are entertaining a little stranger at their home since Sunday. Elder A. P. Hurt of Moss's Mills is assisting in a protracted meeting at Eon Church near Aberdeen. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lynch of Mayville returned to their home Monday after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs. Julia Stubbledick. Esquire Dames Farrar is ill with the grip at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Bryant. Dr. James Shackelford is his attending physician. Mr. Bill Freme, in behalf of the ladies of the Church at this place, presented their Pastor, Elder Tindin, a beautiful quilt Sunday. The present was quite a surprise to him. He remarked that it was the first present he had ever received from a Church since he had been a Minister, and it goes without saying it was very much appreciated.

DOCTORS—AND EDITORS.

The Latter Should Follow the Example of the Portsmouth Physicians.

The Portsmouth Tribune tells of a Front street man who has not paid a Doctor's bill since the War. He had use for a physician a few nights ago—and he needed him p. q. He made the rounds of the offices but failed to obtain one. He said everyone of the Doctors asked him his name, and then after they had taken a look at a list of names, they told him that they had so many calls to make that they couldn't attend to the case. The Front street man added that from the way the Doctors were rushed every body in the city must be sick. The short of it was, the fellow's name was on the "deserted" list.

CHARGED HIM TWENTY.

Foolish Westerner Writes His Name on Washington Monument.

Autographs come high sometimes. It cost William Wilkins of Bay City, Mich., $20 to write his name four times on the Washington Monument.

Wilkins had just landed in Washington, and thought it would be a good joke to register at the Washington Monument instead of at a hotel.

He accordingly wrote his name in large letters on each of the four sides of the Monument.

He has arrested and tried in the Police Court.

The Judge told him that the Monument was not an autograph album, and that there were other ways of announcing his arrival in the Capital.

He told him, in fact, that the only time his name should appear on a Monument was after his death.
